General Information:

Tree Planting

Woodbrook Natural Burial Ground will develop into a coppice woodland. Native Irish trees will be planted in the grounds. Trees are not specific to any grave - there is simply is not the room to grow a tree for every grave / burial.

What Trees will be planted?

When setting up this natural burial ground the future sustainability is foremost in our thoughts. Traditional graveyards must be maintained by our county councils leading to expensive maintenance costs being added to their budgets each year. Although the maintenance costs are significantly lower in a natural burial ground we are conscious that we must protect the future sustainability of each site.

This will be achieved by

- * Ring fencing a percentage of booking fees for future use
- * Designing the Natural Burial Ground to make it generate an income

A properly designed woodland scheme can retain its memorialisation and still sustain itself through coppice woodland management.

A healthy woodland consists of four levels of vegetation, a large tree canopy, an under wood layer (shrubs / coppice), flora (ferns and plants), and ground level mosses and fungi. The under wood layer is key to sustainability.

Some trees will be allowed to grow and form the large tree canopy – these include oak. Other trees will be planted from coppice species such as hazel, chestnut, ash to name a few. These coppice trees will be pruned at near ground level at intervals of between 7 and 15 years. This pruning or coppicing does not kill the tree but encourages more rigorous growth. The coppice wood will provide +an income when sold for a variety of uses.

This pruning also has a positive effect on the woodland flowers such as bluebell and primroses. The sunrays reaching sections of the woodland that it normally would not triggers growth and germination. Many different woodland insects, butterflies, birds and mammals rely on this.

With coppicing trees have the potential to live for hundreds of years.

Cost Per Plot (These prices will remain unchanged until 1/1/2022)

A. Single Plot (1 interment)	€ 950
B. Double Plot (2 interments)	€ 1900
C. Triple Plot (3 interments)	€ 2850
C. 4 people plot	€ 3800
D. Ashes Plot	€ 400

- * To reserve adjacent plots - bookings must be made at the same time
- * Separate grave digging fees will be charged at the time of each interment
- * When purchasing a plot you are buying an exclusive "Right of Burial" (a right to be buried there), this is not legal ownership of the land itself.
- * Payment for plots needs to be completed prior to interment
Various payment methods are available
- * If a prepaid burial space has not been used within 10 years of booking then a separate administration fee is payable prior to use. This administration fee will be equal to 3 hours minimum wage at the time of need.

Transferring bookings to other sites operated by The Green Graveyard Company Limited

We hope to open a number of other natural burial grounds throughout Ireland. We appreciate your booking and realise that in certain circumstances you may wish to transfer your booking to a different site that we operate.

- * In the case where we open another site closer to your home this booking is transferable subject to a small administrative fee equal to 3 hours minimum wage at the time of changing. As prices may differ at other sites you will also be required to pay the difference between price at the new natural burial ground of your choice and what you paid at the time of this booking.

Coffin and Urn Policy:

Please remember to choose an environmentally friendly coffin or urn. Hardwood and chipwood coffins are not permitted. Metals, varnishes and plastics (excluding name plate) must not be used. You may wish to consider one of the coffins from our sister company Green Coffins Ireland Ltd www.greencoffinsireland.com
We retain the right to refuse any coffin we deem unsuitable at the grounds.

Grave Markers:

New Policy Since 2017: Due to the creep creep nature of memorialisation we now insist that you use only the grave markers produced by our team on site. If unsuitable markers, mementoes, trinkets etc are presented at the grounds they will be removed without discussion. Please remember this is a Natural Burial Ground.
